

GRRL HAUS CINEMA

“Screen Your Film Seminar” in Berlin

GRRL HAUS CINEMA is offering a 2 week-long “Screen Your Film Seminar” in Berlin.

This is an opportunity for filmmakers to have public screenings of their films, while discovering the Berlin art scene.

Screenings and events include:

- An open air (outdoor) screening hosted by Mobile Kino at a unique venue in Berlin. With filmmaker Q & A following screening
- A party screening at Loophole Berlin, an underground DIY venue in Neukölln.
- A featured filmmakers salon at Ilali studios where artists have individual artist talks about their work
- An artists' networking event, where our featured filmmakers can meet other working artists and filmmakers in Berlin and hear about their work process

During this time you will also have time to develop new projects and explore Berlin and discover its film and art scene.

In these two weeks we also organize multiple events, including photo exhibitions, video art exhibitions, weekly meet ups at Ilali studios and tours of private art collections in Berlin. We will also have a screening of new work from our 2019 residents at a project space.

This opportunity is well suited for emerging female, non-binary, genderqueer, and trans filmmakers and video artists who already have completed works to be shown, and have a desire to work in and explore Berlin.

Week 1: Work on projects on your own with meet-ups for discussions, critiques, and advice on projects. Attend selected events, screenings, and exhibitions in the evenings. Present your work at our Loophole party event.

Week 2: The start of this week you will have a solo artist talk and screening at a project space Ilali and the end of the week will culminate in a cinema screening hosted by Mobile Kino at an outdoor venue in Berlin.

Selected participants will receive press and exposure thru GRRL HAUS
